Arlene loved people and loved the joy of laughter. She sought the company of others and was more than a school secretary. She was the unofficial school counselor, nurse, and life coach for many children, parents, and teachers.

She was a member of the First Baptist Church of Sharon where she taught Sunday school, first to young adults and later to adult women. She also enjoyed singing in the choir for a number of years.

Arlene was a gifted seamstress. After her retirement, she became an avid quilter and enjoyed various needle work projects. She enjoyed quilting with the Sharon Quilting Club for many years.

Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, the family urges visitors to wear a mask and social distance at the service.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to the First Baptist Church of Sharon, the Lauren Rogers Museum of Art, or the Ellen Young Gunn Steinway Project through the Jones College Foundation.

“ Arlene was a special friend to my family. We loved her and will miss her. When I think of home and church, I always think of her. I loved her sweet smiles and hugs. My thoughts and prayers are with each of you at this time. I know your sweet memories of her will bring you comfort.

“ So grateful for the 30 years we have gotten to know her as memaw Arlene. We always looked forward to visiting her and papa Calvin every summer in the deep woods of Mississippi pine and we would sit on the big screened in porch in the two story house and talk and joke and visit and sip on the sweet tea. She always had a smile and kind heart and made us feel at home when we visited and always shared about what God was doing in her life or church. These are the memories that will last a lifetime. Not to mention the good fridge fruitcake she made one time when I was 15 or 16 we visited during Christmas and I finished the whole thing. This is not a goodbye this is a see you later. Love you!
