Janell was a wonderful friend. She worked at the Laurel General Hospital with my father A. C. Logan, lab tech. She was the nurse when I had my third son. In fact she delivered him when their was no Dr. to do the job. She was so sweet and comforting and I shall never forget her. My son is now in his 50s and a Baptist Minister, Marriage and youth counselor. She and I have been penpals for years and I shall miss her a lot.

Janell was a most conscientious and caring person as well as co-worker. Rest in peace..your job on earth is done.
