Her last six years were spent at Comfort Care Nursing Center. There she enjoyed socializing with all the residents and playing Bingo. She even took up quilting and started making quilts for the grandchildren. On Sunday mornings, you could find her watching all of the different church services on television. The family would like to thank the staff at Comfort Care Nursing Center for taking care of her, especially Martez, Courtney, and Vicky.

Due to the Covid 19 pandemic, there will be no formal visitation. There will be a graveside service for family and friends. Please wear face coverings and practice social distancing if you plan to attend.

“ I am so sorry about Faye’s passing. I have known her since she moved to Comfort Care where she became friends with my mother, and also me. We spent much time together visiting and talking about clothes, books and life. I brought her Danielle Steele books often which she loved! She looked out for my mother and always filled me in on the news, as well as playing Bingo! After my mother passed 3 years ago, I continued to visit her. What a kind, sweet woman who made me laugh and make memories. I will miss her smile and humor and our visits. Your family is in my prayers. God bless you all.

“ It is with a very heavy that I have to say goodbye to my sister Faye Juanice today. I have so many memories of you as I was growing up with only being three years younger than you. I’ll miss our weekly talks, and I hate this pandemic has kept us apart from your nursing home. R.I.P., my sister, I will never ever forget you.

“ So sad to hear of Juanice's passing - she was loved by so many friends and family. I only knew her for a short while mostly, after she moved to Comfort Care. Juanice had such a sweet spirit about her and now she's enjoying a reunion with her many friends and relatives.

“ My mother is at Comfort Care and Mrs. Williams was always a treasure to see and visit. She would give me updates on how my mom was doing. And she always had a book in her lap. She was a fine Christian lady and I will miss seeing her. I will be praying for you all in your loss.
