“ Beth: I worked with your daddy for many years. I know you were a daddy’s girl and he loved you. He was a kind and caring man. Toni Sellers White

“ There have been great human beings to walk this earth, but none so humble, kind, and caring than James Dale Windham. An unassuming, quiet spirited, loving father, husband and friend .

He loved his wife and cared for her every need. His children and his grandchildren were his life and he adored them and they him and he did all he could to meet all their requests and needs.

His passion was fast cars especially his corvettes. Lorraine was never, freer, happier, or complete within herself than when she was riding behind Dale on their Harley, Honda or whatever the motorcycle was!

Dale has had his share of suffering over the years.

However, Thursday past (January 14th, 2021) God sent His angels to the bedside of a great man and lifted Dale from this world to a world we only long for. He is sitting and laughing, crying, reminiscing with a wife healed of her horrible health challenges, and together they will take each other by the hand and agree that the two together should go to the throne room of God, fall at His feet and worship the one who loved them so.
