

Kathryn Sue "Kathy" Morgan

March 24, 1953 - July 8, 2020

Kathy Morgan, 67, of Laurel, died Wednesday, July 8, 2020, at South Central Regional Medical Center, following a battle with Interstitial Lung Disease and COVID-19.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Evelyn Ruth Bender Ates, her father, James Dallas Ates, and her step-mother, Frances Ates.

She is survived by her husband of 43 years, Alan Morgan, three children: Bethany Morgan Creath of Lincoln, MA, Kate Morgan of Jackson, MS, and Matt Morgan of Augusta, GA, a son-in-law, Peter Creath, a daughter-in-law, Emma Kate Morgan, three grandchildren: Evelyn, Irene, and Gardner Creath, and her step-mother, Jean Ates of Laurel.

Kathryn Sue Ates was born on March 24, 1953, to James and Evelyn Ates, in Laurel, and grew up there. Following undergraduate and graduate studies at Southern Miss and Mississippi State, Kathy and her high-school-sweetheart-turned-husband Alan moved back to Laurel. Over the next 4 decades, she raised three children who adored her. Kathy was a faithful member of Audubon Drive Bible Church for 40 years. She taught a girls Sunday School class and continually practiced biblical hospitality especially to her church family, whom she dearly loved.

She was also a beloved teacher of elementary school drama and high school speech at Laurel Christian School, leaving a legacy of countless students who credit her as one of their most influential teachers. She was spunky, smart, creative and funny. Most of all she loved and worshiped her Savior Jesus Christ. Memory Chapel is in charge of arrangements. There will be a graveside service for the family this weekend. "For from Him and through Him and to Him are all things. To Him be the glory forever! Amen." Romans 11:36.

“ Alan and family,
I am so sorry for the loss of precious Kathy. I know she is dancing on the streets of gold in heaven. I must share how she touched my life as Denise and I did a girls Bible Study at your house and she imparted such Godly wisdom. I will never forget this experience. I praise our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, for the beautiful witness Kathy was. May God give each of you peace that passes all understanding and comfort in the days ahead. God Bless you all! “ It was both an honor and a joy to know Kathy Ates Morgan, fondly known as Ateez. She was my KD "secret sister" which meant she gave me little gifts and wrote special little notes during my pledge year. While we were always trying to tempt her to have a little college fun, she'd let us think we were leading her astray while she was really getting us all home safe and sound before getting locked out of Panhellenic. And, the singing. And, the skits. And, the late night talks and jokes. Kathy had a nickname for everyone -- I remember Daddy-bo, and she referred to me as Bephus (long before the sitcom). Behind the scenes, throughout the college years, there was always Alan, the mysterious man who held Kathy's heart. But, even above Alan, you knew that Kathy's faith in Christ was the center of her life. It wasn't in a way that made anyone feel like they weren't living up to the standards of a Christ-centered life; it was more illustrative of the joy and centering in her life. She really is one of those people that it is an honor to have known. She made my college years a richer and fuller experience, and I hate that I won't be able to connect with her here again. I hope for another connection.

I saw pictures and heard tales of the family at my last visit with Kathy at your home in Laurel. My prayers and thoughts are with you. When God made Kathy, He threw away the mold. Blessing and peace to you all.

“ Kathy was the cutest, happiest, spunkiest person one would EVER want to meet. Her musical talents lit up our lives in Kappa Delta Sorority. I can't remember how many nights she would sit in the stairwell and play her guitar and sing. Rarely was she alone. Most of the time there were others who would sing and harmonize with her and those who thought they could. There weren't just her sorority sisters...friends from other sororities were drawn to the gathering.

She was a Bible scholar and was quick to soothe those who needed love and guidance. I don't think I ever saw her angry...always smiling and caring. Her light has left this earth but will always shine in our hearts.

I am so honored to have known and loved you Kathy Ates Morgan.

“ I only knew Kathy a few short years at USM but I can honestly say I have seldom met someone I admired so much. She had that rare ability — seldom seen today — to not label people and to respectfully listen to others even if she disagreed with what they were saying. I recall her intelligence, wit, compassion, leadership and character, mostly from our time together in student government.

“ Alan and family. Just learned of the passing of Kathy and wanted you to know that we send our prayers and love to you and the family. She has left a void that only God can provide comfort. May God be near you and the family as you adapt to this loss. Prayers!

“ JOYFUL !!! That's how I would describe Ates (Kathy). As soon as I met Kathy, we had an instant connection, the joy of singing. What a blessing that , not only are we Sisters in Kappa Delta, we are also Sisters in Christ.

Praying for you, Alan and for your precious family, as the Lord keeps you in His tender care.
