“ William was always there for me to vent when I was angry, comfort me when my parents died, laugh with me when I did something stupid. He helped me pray my child into this world and was my best babysitter when I needed him. My son, DC, always requested “Mr. Willyen” (that is how he pronounced his name and he still does) because William did whatever DC wanted to do. I will miss our phone conversations and our arguments about politics. He always said he loved me to the moon and back ____ times. Our last goodbye was “To the moon and back 2012 times.” The world seems lacking without him but I know Heaven is fuller because he is there. Luv ya, William Forever your friend, Kammy White
