“ We miss you Nannie; you were the light of our family for so long. You wiped our tears, healed our bo-bos, listened to our ramblings, laughed at our jokes (even when they weren't funny), got us out of trees, helped us learn to read, took us fishing, cooked the most amazing meals (every time we came home, no matter what time it was, if we were hungry or not), taught us hymns, taught us to cook and clean, and always, always opened the door whenever we needed you. Thank you for everything! We love you!

“ Mrs. Willie Vee was a sweet friend of ours and also, of so many others. She will certainly be missed. She gave me a small hand-made gift when we were at Good Hope as her pastor and wife 39 years ago. I still use that gift most days of my life, even today. I told her once that every time I used it, I prayed for her because it made me think of her. We were so thankful we got to see and talk with her at Good Hope's recent Homecoming. Now she is experiencing a far greater Homecoming! God bless all her family and friends. You are in our prayers.

Bro. Parker and Jeanne, thank you so much for your kind words and for sharing your special memory. Her handmade gifts are the most precious joys. Your presence and music on Friday were beautiful and I know she loved seeing you both there, thank you!
