“ Our love and prayers Are with all the family. Curtis and Delphia were members of Shady Chapel Inited Methodist Church where we also belonged. They were both wonderful Christian people. We miss them a lot.

“ Curtis was a very dear neighbor and we all missed him after he moved to Mississippi. He and I spent many hours clearing the lot between our places while Delphia and Lowell sat back and watched.

Everyone here at the lake thought highly of Curtis. He was a good honest hard working man that loved his family.

Curtis also enjoyed spending time on Sam Rayburn bass fishing and was always there to help anytime someone needed a helping hand.

Heaven now has another special angel.

My thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends.
