

Amanda Joy Hankins Thrash

February 7, 1958 - December 15, 2024

Amanda Joy Hankins Thrash was born on February 7, 1958 to Jack and Wilma Hankins, and passed peacefully on December 15, 2024.

She was a devoted member of Eastview Baptist Church. Her education included attending Northeast Jones High School, and graduating Jones County Junior College with a nursing degree. She served as an RN for several years in home health, as well as in the ICU alongside a very special and close nephew, Jeremy Mauldin, at South Central Regional Medical Center. Her retirement from this honorable service was in March 2010. Amanda was the sweetest, most caring person and mother to everyone around her. She enjoyed cooking, playing on her computer, and watching Law and Order SVU.

Amanda is preceded in death by her parents, Jack Hankins and Wilma Hankins. She is survived by her husband, Kevin Thrash; son, Shaun Fowler; daughter, Courtney Odom (William); three step-children, Charlie, Heath, and Stephen Thrash; grandchildren, Hunter Odom, Jaxson Fowler, Anna Thrash, and Trent Thrash; sister, Seleta Cochran; brother, Jackie Hankins; and several special nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers for the service will be Jake Mauldin, Brian Mauldin, William Odom, Hunter Odom, Jeremy Mauldin, and George Carr. Reverend Thomas

Montgomery will be officiating the services.

“ My heart is broken to hear the news about Amanda. She was one of the sweetest people with the softest voice. To her family, grief never ends, but it changes. It is a passage, not a place to stay. Grief is not a sign of weakness nor lack of faith. It is the price of love. Keeping you all in my prayers. Ann Rose Martin Howell

“ Seleta and family, so very sorry for the loss of your dear Sister, Mother, Aunt and Wife, Amanda. I have lost my oldest sister, Billie Rustin Laird, a little over 2 years now, so I understand the grief and sadness that you are feeling just now and will feel for days ahead. I pray that you all will feel solace in the fact that she is now in the arms of Jesus and will join your Mother and Father in rejoicing in her arrival into heaven. My love and prayers to you all!
