

Ann Jones Catron

October 14, 1931 - October 24, 2019

Ann Jones Catron, 88, passed away on Thursday, Oct. 24, 2019, at her home. A graduate of 'Ole Miss, she was a teacher before marrying her beloved husband, Jack. She spent the next decades as a loving wife and mother, devoted church member, and active participant in the Laurel community. Ann was especially committed to the Christian Food Mission, where she volunteered for over thirty years.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Curtis and Tressa Jones, and by husband Jack.

Ann is survived by her children, Janice (Gordon Berg), John, Curtis (Teresa), and Cathy Craig (Matt); her grandchildren, Sam (Ashley) and Alex Craig; her great-grandson, Jack Craig; and her brothers, Newton and Victor Jones, and their families.

Visitation will be from 2:00-4:00 p.m. on Sunday, October 27, at First Trinity Presbyterian Church (500 North Fifth Avenue), followed by a funeral service there at 4:00. A graveside service for family and close friends will then be held at Lake Park Cemetery.

The family requests that, in lieu of flowers, donations be made to First Trinity Presbyterian Church or to the Christian Food Mission.

“ Love and my thoughts to each of you. She will be missed and I will miss our telephone conversations. We covered all of the family. Don't ask questions. Please keep in touch with us, your Virginia family. Remember, we are the family you have.

Love to cousins from Virginia, Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, Michigan, Kentucky, and all the many other places they live. I love you.

“ Dear Janice, John, Curtis, Cathy, and family,

I am so sorry for your loss. Ann was a wonderful lady, and I'm so glad I had the privilege of knowing her. We had some fun times at your house just laughing and enjoying life. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
