“ Anna loved to get a hogs head and make her own hog head cheese. One day she had this hogs head laying in the sink. My two little ones (Stacey and Tracey) thought it was a grand thing. They got chairs and pulled up to the sink and started putting there fingers up it's nose in its mouth and was having a grand time until Anna caught them and made them stop. She was always doing special things for the kids. She was a good mother, mother in law and a great grandmother
