“ My mother, Anna Jewel Williams Ishee Musgrove, and Anna Jewel Hilbun Musgrove spent many times in the past 15 years (or possibly more) attempting to untangle doctor appointments! Mother and I would often laugh when she had to call and explain who she was, and who the other Anna Jewel Musgrove was. It helped that mother lived in Stringer. To add to the confusion, there was yet another “Ann Musgrove, whose husband was named Larry Musgrove - the same as mother’s second husband!!
When I learned of Anna Jewel Hilbun Musgrove’s passing, and was contacted by several friends offering condolences, I was sad for her family. My mother was also sad, but being the eternal optimist, she quipped “Well, at least we won’t be mixed up in Heaven!” How true!!
