“ Earl and I were so sorry to hear about Betty. She was truly a fixture of my childhood and one of the sweetest people I ever knew. Seeing her or talking on the phone with her was always special. She made the best strawberry cake I ever ate, and I am so thankful to have had her as a part of my life. She will be missed by all who knew her. Prayers for the entire family.

“ Betty was my friend and an extremely talented lady of many gifts. Inspire of obstacles, Betty was one of the most industrious persons I have ever known. I will never forget her arranging 100 long stem red roses on Saturday for the Sunday's Century Celebration of Heidelberg Presbyterian Church. When we arrived the next morning the fantastic arrangement of roses had become top heavy from absorbing all the water in the vase had toppled over scattering the roses across the church. Always unflappable, Betty, placed gravel in the bottom of the vase, picked up the roses and rearranged them into a bouquet that was even more beautiful than the one she had made the day before. I so admired Betty because that event was just an example of the many times all though her life that she had been called on to pick up and start over and she never failed.
