He is survived by his wife, Faye Sumrall Jackson Sibley; daughters, Caren Sibley Walker of Arizona and Charlene Sibley Hall and son-in-law, Scott Hall of Collins; granddaughters, Lauren Walker of Arizona, Katelyn Lyon of Hattiesburg and Jessica Lyon Kahler, husband, Shawn and great grandson, Brady of McHenry; step-son, Kim Jackson of Louisiana and step-grandson, Connor Jackson of Texas. Bill served 23 years of active duty service in the Navy. He served in the Korean Conflict and Vietnam War. Also, Bill retired after working 20 years with Sears.

Bill loved his LORD, his family, and his church family of Tuckers Crossing Baptist Church. Bill loved children and he and Faye served as rotating Children's Church leaders for several years. He was the church photographer, an usher, the church greeter, and an active member of his Sunday School class.

Pallbearers are Sean, Chance, and Cade Sumrall, Andrew Tanner, Scott Hall, and Shawn Kahler. Honorary pallbearers are Eric Roberts, James Walters, and the members of Men's #3 Sunday School Class.

Bill was a loving, caring husband, father, and grandfather not only to his grandchildren and great grandson but "grandfathered" all his nieces and nephews as though they truly were his own. He leaves us with beautiful memories, wonderful gifts tenderly carved for the recipient, and the legacy of a strong and tender loving man of God.
