“ I am so sorry Glenda. I do not recall meeting the other family members but I want you all to know my prayers are with you. Ransom loved Billy Ray and their friendship went way back. Billy Ray came to see Ransom almost daily in the months before he died. I'm sure jokes are flying right now in heaven between the two of them. Again to the family, he was a very dear man.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss, praying that God comfort and strengthen you during the days to come. Mr Billy was a very dear friend to my mother, Ms Kate, and our family, I appreciate him coming to Union to spend time and visit with her. It was such a blessing to be around Mr Billy, he was also so full of life and enjoyed every minute. He will be greatly missed by many. Praying for you daily.
