“ Mr. Billy was a great friend to me. He always had the answers to problems and helped me anytime I needed him. I will miss him and Bay Springs football is forever thankful for the many things he did to help us. Every Monday morning during football season I would get a visit, “Well Rosco how did we do?” I miss those times and I will continue to pray for the family.

So kind!!! Thank you! Just opened up the tribute page today. Billy thought so much of YOU and the Brady family. People like you and the WJSD employees made it easy for him to enjoy his job. I never recall him saying " I don't want to go to work today." We as a family are trusting in God and finding peace in knowing Billy is rejoicing with our Lord. Thank you again for your kind words, Gwen and family.
