“ Ms Bobbie, you have always been such an inspiration to so many during your lifetime. You have raised at least 4 generations of children at Plainway on saltine crackers!! The nursery at Plainway was your life as well as each and every child that come through that nursery. You always cared for every child in the neighborhood. You never let go of that nurse that was instilled in you and just took care of everybody. You will be sorely missed and I am looking to one day running through the field of flowers with you laughing and praising our Lord! Praise Jesus you have no more pain!! Heaven got another beautiful angel. R.I.P. I love you.
