It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Brenda Kay Taylor, beloved mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She passed peacefully at Comfort Care Nursing Center on May 14, 2025 at the age of 75.

She was preceded in death by her parents Irving and Maude Holston, her five older siblings, and her husband Ronnie Taylor. She is survived by her daughter Ronda Walters (Dwayne), and her sons Glen Taylor (Cindy) and Casey Joe Taylor. Also surviving are her grandchildren Kristen Nowell (Ryan), Shelby Allen (Bryars), and Wesley Taylor, and also, her great-grandchildren Bryson Nowell, Colton Nowell, Murphy Wise, and Karoline Allen.

She took great pride in her work at Morgan Bros. Millwork Inc. for 26 years as a customer service representative.

She dedicated her life to caring for her youngest son, Casey Joe, and being an advocate for special needs.

Services are being provided by Memory Chapel. A private family graveside service will be held at a later date.

The family would like to thank Comfort Care Nursing Center for the excellent care that was provided to our Mom.

“ I was sad to hear about Brenda - The last time I saw her at the Comfort Care Nursing Home was on Sunday a week before she was taken to the hospital. It was during the Sunday service and I remember her intently listening to the sermon. What I noticed most was how she was singing the hymns at the beginning of the service. She definitely knew the words to each one. I remember the times I visited her and how I was always clowning around trying to make her smile and laugh, and she did. I miss that and I miss her.
