“ I loved Mrs. Burma so much. She was such a sweet, precious person and will be missed so much. I'm so sorry I can't get by today, but my work and doctor's appointment are conflicting with the time. Know we loved her, and I miss her sweet smiling face already. God be with you.

“ What a privilege and a blessing it has been to know Burma and to call her a friend. What a vibrant, funny, and sincerely compassionate person she has been. I have loved hearing her life stories - so many experiences and so much work for the Lord's kingdom. This special saint is singing praises to our Lord and Savior today in her forever home. I am so blessed to know that I will see her again.
