“ Rest in love and peace my dear, kind friend. You will live on in my memories of your profound kindness, wicked sense of humor, passion for books and music (especially the Beatles, Fleetwood Mac, Eric Clapton to name just a few) and love of all of God's creatures.

I will always wish we had one more day together to laugh and remember all of our good times together but your memory will stay alive with all of us who loved you and truly saw you for all of the beauty and goodness that you were.

I send all of my love and thoughts of peace and comfort to the Davis family.

This was always one of my favorite photos of CJ.

“ Dear Mrs. Davis, Gina, Joey and Family, I'm so sorry for your loss. We were classmates as teenagers and coworkers and friends later in life. CJ was a beautiful and witty individual who cared fiercely about animals, especially Zane and about humans as well. She was also brilliant and definitely a bright light. Praying for all of you.

“ I keep trying to write something meaningful, anything to capture her essence. She loved deeply, laughed heartily...I admired her wit, brilliant mind, and merciful spirit. Her passion for music and love of animals was transcendental. A tender beautiful soul.... she was so lovely. I pray for all who loved CJ, but especially her family. I am profoundly sorry for your loss.

“ Dr C J was my supervisor at Ms State Hospital, we shared some great moments, she was always concerned about others, this is truly sad, she was very professional and loved her patients, I will pray for her families strength, Amen

“ CJ was such a sweet friend in high school and beyond. Her name brings a smile to my face as I recall the fun we shared. The laughter! The world is a better place because of her light.

“ I got to know CJ when we were both in graduate school at USM. She loved music almost as much as her studies! Through our friendship I was blessed to get to know and love the whole Davis family. Sending all of you my love and prayers. - Carole Price

“ Dear Mrs. Davis, Gina, Joey and family: I am so sorry to hear of CJ's passing. I am remembering such happy times full of laughter! What a special person she was - and yes, she helped so many people. Played the clarinet beautifully! And I don't ever see or hear Barbra Streisand that I don't think of my friend. Wishing you peace, knowing CJ made a difference and loved her family.
