

Charles Emmon "Cecil" Johnson

August 20, 1931 - January 20, 2023

Cecil Johnson, a lifelong resident of the Sharon community passed away Friday night after a lengthy illness.

Everyone who met him will remember his as a happy and loving person. He was an avid fisherman and talented carpenter. Always a fan of the Sharon Tigers and the West Jones Mustangs, he enthusiastically supported not only his sons and grandchildren in their endeavors, but also all their friends.

He was preceded in death by his wife Mary Grace Welborn Johnson, his son Lester Grayson Johnson, and his great granddaughter Adley Ryale Johnson.

He is survived by three sons: Ricky Johnson (Maronda), Bruce Johnson, and Robby Johnson. He is also survived by seven grandchildren and thirteen great grandchildren.

Final services will be held at Memory Chapel Funeral Home on Thursday, January 26, 2023 starting with family viewing at 12:30 p.m., public viewing at 1:00 p.m., and services at 2:00 p.m. The burial will follow at Bonner Cemetery.

Grandsons and great grandsons will serve as pallbearers.

“ I have wonderful memories of working with Uncle Cecil and my dad. We worked hard but enjoyed every minute. We had some fun times at the ball games. Uncle Cecil and Aunt Mary Grace was always there. We did a lot of fishing. Loved the camp on Cedar creek and all the camping at the different lakes. Home away from home.
