“ My prayers and love go out to Charlie's family, siblings, children and greats and extended family as I consider myself one having known y'all for 50 years. Charlie was a great friend and you had to have a mind like his (silly) to understand him some days.

You will be missed by many Charlie , I know you are with your loved ones now, and your body feels no pain. We held each other up in time of sorrow and for that I will always be thankful. Goodbye my friend. RIP

“ Growing up in a large family where siblings and cousins are together all the time, you all feel like siblings. When you heard a laugh that preceded him into the room you knew Buddy(Charles) was there and happy. Love you much, cousin. Juanelene Weekley Lansing
