“ I will always picture CR dancing to Canned Heat "Going Up the Country" in your kitchen back in the 60's and making us laugh and laugh whenever I hear that song. He was SO handsome and charming and was the cutest and fairest referee running between the bricks as we cheered the tornadoes on to victory! Like a second father to me, he and Jo Ann kept us out of trouble, and when we managed to do something "memorable", he'd tell us about it early Saturday morning! haha! My love goes out to my bff, Jodee, and Sheryl, and Mama Jo Ann. I love you all and will always treasure my memories of Charles Ray. He truly was a TREASURE!
