“ Claudia and family we were so saddened when Chad told us about Charles. We are also concerned about your health. Please take care of yourself. We are praying that you and your family feel God's presence in the days ahead. I know Charles would want you to know that he is resting in the arms of his precious Lord and he is at peace. God bless you all

“ I loved being on church committees with Charles because he was so loving to everyone on the committees. He gave his sincere effort to each meeting and truly was interested in what was best for the church. His kindness showed in everything he did and he and Claudia were a loving, giving part of so many lives. I will dearly miss his warm smile and kind words. Much love to Claudia and the family. God has truly said to Charles, "Welcome home My good and faithful servant". Our loss is Heaven's gain.
