“Mr. Lowe was a talented neighbor. When we first moved back to Laurel, he was selling Christmas decorations. I bought a Santa in a sleigh and 9 reindeer. They were white and I put red velvet bows around their necks, turned a spotlight on them and enjoyed them for many seasons. Later he was cutting back his Confederate rose bushes and I stopped and asked for some cuttings. He and his nice wife gathered up a nice pile of cuttings, helped me get them in the car and we talked for a long, long time. That is when I learned about his patents and how really smart, he was. He was friendly and helpful and I considered a special friend. May God comfort his family as they learn to get along without their leader. Prayers, Ann Howell
