“ I've never met Charles personally. It seems everyone else knew him. Therefore, i had heard plenty of him and wanted to meet him cyz he sounded so awesome!

Yet i have a memory... .. i was coming out of our local Dollar Store. When i noticed and older black woman with the hood of her car up. There stood Charles with his bags in hand looking at the motor. I heard him say, "I'm a mechanic and i live over the tracks. I'll go get my tools and I'll be back to see what I can do".

All i could do was smile and think to myself, 'Isn't he just the sweetest"!

From my understanding that was Charles. Im so sorry that I didnt get to meet him.

To Charles' family.....my heart breaks for yall. I pray justice will be served ten times over.

May God bless yall with wonderful memories to help ease the heartache.

A Master Mechanic. He worked on my car several times. I was so impressed by his skills and million dollar smile! Many prayers for his family.

“ This is the best and funniest thing I can tell about me and Lil Bit. I was the only girl in the whole bunch of boys. Me and Lil Bit was all the time getting into something we were not supposed to and we knew better. I remember one day at my house, daddy had been painting something and left the brushes out in the back yard. Well me and Lil Bit took those paintbrushes and painted the back of my house by smearing those brushes in dog do do and wrote our names on the back of the house. Another time me him set the weeds on fire between his house and mine. Mama and Louise came outside and started beating those weeds down trying to get the fire out. Louise tore his tail up right in the yard. Last thing I'm gonna tell on you my dearest friend. He would dip skoal or chew tobacco whichever one Duane Robinson had that day. Well when daddy got home from work and Newt Lil Bit's daddy got home from work. Daddy would watch and tell Lil Bit that he better get that tobacco out of his mouth. He stuck his head under the faucet and washed all that mess out of his mouth and went home. I couldn't have ask for a better friend. Those were the good times and I would do it all again if I had the chance. I love you my true friend and U will be sadly missed by everyone that knew you, because you never met a stranger. I bet you just didn't get to write your name on the back of their house with "Pure Dog Do Do" You would have to see it to believe it, but that is a true story. All before we were 10 years ago. Love you, Nan Hancock
