“ I met Durwin and Sheila shortly after Lacey died in 1995. They really made a difference in how I coped with losing my child . We became best friends and Durwin always kept me in stitches !! Such a calmness about him . Easy to talk to. You never knew what he might say at any given time .. Ha ! I can honestly say he was a great Christian man and wonderful friend . I know God allowed them to be a part of my life at the time I needed them most . He will be missed for sure . Will always remember all the laughs we shared . Rest in peace ! Durwin . Karen Rodgers
