“ I was so pleased to know Doris and proud of her staying with Rosa Page Welch. My thoughts and prayers are with the family. I, too, was a friend of Rosa Page Welch. She's in a better place now.

“ Amie I am so very sorry and saddened to hear about the loss of you sweet mama. She was definitely one of a kind, I miss her sweet accent & her kind heart. She was always good to me and loved to feed me every time I visited when we were in school. Many many good and fun memories of her. Prayers and good thoughts for you, your sweet daddy, and the rest of your family. Love you❤️

“ So sorry for the family on losing such a “sweetheart of a lady”. She had a captivating smile and a precious heart that could be seen immediately when you were with her! I regret that i can’t make the funeral. I am in Jackson with our daughter, Katie all this week. Please know I would be there otherwise. With much love , Pina
