“ I have many memories of my grandfather. I loved and miss all of our fishing trips together. It is the fondest memories I have. Caught many redfish and sheepshead they were always the most fun to catch. Never forget the deep sea trip catching many king and Spanish mackerel ice chest full that was so fun. One of the worst was when we went chumming at oil rigs for sharks and I got so sick and we had to go all the way back to cabin boy he was mad at me that day. Loved our trips to round island. I have such fond family memories back then. My pawpaw was a stern, fun, loving, person and a hard worker all his life. He will be missed but may he be at peace now. Love you pawpaw.

“ Wayne Graham thought of him often. He asked me to see if I could contact him several months ago. I sent a message on Facebook but never heard anything. Wayne has late stage alzheimiers. He counted Dale as one of his best life long friends.
