“ My prayers go with your Family Connie and your place in Heaven I know is waiting for you. Ken and I have great memories of you at Jones, they will never be forgotten. How fortunate we were to have those great times together. What a special group of people. May God be with you. Mary Poore Schulte

“ Pat you and all the family are in our prayers. I remember Jerry was always smiling and had such a happy laugh. Our mother, Anna Faye Grafton Maxey, always said he was the cutest baby and was very spoiled by his nieces and nephews. She had a wonderful time watching him grow into the great man he became. They would always be teasing each other and the affection was obvious. Heaven is a happier place now that they both are there.
