

Connie J. Rose

August 21, 1954 - February 4, 2021

Connie Jean Rose was born on August 21, 1954 in Wayne County, MS and passed on to her heavenly home on February 4, 2021 with her children at her side.

She is preceded in death by her husband Robert E. Rose, her parents Gaston Freeman (Myra) and Nancy Busby (Arthur), and step-son Chris Mace.

She is survived by her son Paul Lott (Christina), daughter Victoria West (Aaron), step-son Cory Mace, brother Buddy Freeman (Janet), sisters Tannette Lewis and Linda Sue Taylor, grandchildren Kayla Lott, Noah Swanson, Jacob Swanson, Adam Lott, and Baby West who is on the way, a host of nieces and nephews, and her fur babies.

Connie enjoyed working at Holiday Inn for many years in New Orleans where she made many lifelong friends.

After moving back to Mississippi in 2001, she became the “voice of Walmart.” She was a huge football fan, especially to the New Orleans Saints and any team Peyton Manning played for.

On any football game day, you could find her putting the “GREE GREE” on the opposing team. Connie never met a stranger.

She would talk to you like she had known you her entire life even if you had just met. She enjoyed making trips back to Louisiana to visit her family and friends. Connie also enjoyed spending time with her "Posse." She was a lifelong viewer of her soaps and loved Andy Griffith.

“ What wonderful memories I have of our sweet Connie. You could always count on a kind welcome with good food and a good laugh!! I will miss my cousin but I know that we shall see her again one sweet day. Fly high sweet Angel and know how much we all love you!! I know you, Mama, and Aunt Nancy will keep heaven laughing. Just look for me for I will be there too!!❤️❤️❤️
