“ Dear Tommy and family,
Ya'll are in our thoughts and prayers. This has been a long and difficult road for all. May the Mercy of God, and his abiding Peace bring you comfort and assurance of someplace better in days to come.
Cindy sat next to me in typing class, and was one of the fastest typers we had. We sang together in the choir in high school, and I never saw her without a smile on her face. I too will miss her as a n old high school friend.

“ I am so sad to hear this news about my Aunt. We haven't seen each other in many years only because we lost touch. The only comfort I can find is that now she is with the Lord and her Dad, brother, and sister. Too young in our eyes but God always has a plan. Rest in sweet peace Cindy. I will cherish the memories of our times together. xoxoxo
