

Cynthia Wilson Thompson

January 1, 1949 - February 9, 2015

Cynthia “Cindy” Wilson Thompson, 66, was called to her heavenly home on Monday, February 9, 2015.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. Wednesday, February 11, 2015, at Bethlehem Baptist Church. Dr. Cary Kimbrell will officiate.

She was born in Jasper County on January 1, 1945. Cindy was a long-time resident of Jones County where she was a member of Bethlehem Baptist Church. She worked full-time in the nursery and was affectionately called “Grammy” by her babies, each child loved as though they were her own.

Cindy was preceded in death by her husband of 41 years, Fred Thompson; one daughter, Holly Ann Thompson; and parents, Edison and Violet Wilson.

She is survived by two daughters and sons-in-law, Randi and Jared Gatlin and Ashley and Josh Perks; two grandchildren, Madison and Gabe Gatlin; one sister and brother-in-law, Nancy and Dan Johnson.

Cindy was a dedicated Christian whose love for the Lord was shown by the kindness she shared with others. As she now lives with the Lord, her memories will forever live in our hearts.

Pallbearers will be Joe Pruitt, Paul Thomas, Rhett Reid, Mikey Walley, Mickey Bond, and Lance Chancellor. Honorary pallbearers will be the men of Bethlehem Baptist Church.

Visitation will be held from 5 until 8 p.m. Tuesday, February 10, 2015, at Bethlehem Baptist Church.

Memory Chapel is in charge of the arrangements. To view and sign the family
