“ I went to south Jones high school with lil bit. I lived on 999 tower rd we would ride bikes after school. We was pretty close friends. I hate it for all of us whom he has been taken from. But one thing I know was darren carpenter Jr loved everyone he knew but really loved his mother. I remember him so hurt when her accident accured it was like he left he had nothing left. But that's something that helps me smile on this lost to my life and many others because he may be gone but he is in a better place. He is with his mother who he loved dearly. Life is crazy cause first we lived by one another and now he is laid to rest not far from me so me and my brothers and sister Will always visit hon. He will be forever missed. Hope they find who did this. My condolences to his father darron carpenter and his sister and cousin billy I know personally he loved you all very much.
