“ I have so many memories of Daryl there are too many to mention but one for sure was him teaching my youngest daughter, Katlyn, how to shoot her very first BB Gun when she was about 7 and is now 20. I have alot of memories and smile at them all. His family will be in my prayers and he will never be forgotten! R I P my friend!

“ There are too many memories to share, and though I haven't seen you in a while, "we were always us" (the title of a poem I once wrote him). Kayla you were his princess! That much I know. I could go on and on... To his family and friends I am keeping y'all close in my prayers, as I always have and always will keep him close to my ❤️. Jennifer Jackson aka (2 scoops, because he had a nick name for everybody).

“ Hard to believe you're gone old friend. I will always remember you hanging out with my brother Bobby when we were young . Riding bikes and ramping ramps to driving cars . Rest In Peace
