

David Len Lawson

August 22, 1944 - October 29, 2023

David Len Lawson passed away on October 29, 2023 at South Central Regional Medical Center in Laurel, MS with his beloved wife Helen Lawson by his side.

After graduating from Hattiesburg High School, David was a career armed services member with stints in the Navy, Marines, and finished his career with the Army over 32 years. In between enlistments, he attended the University of Southern Mississippi. After retiring from the Army, he channeled his passion for serving into his photography business, Cameo Portraits where he captured beautiful moments at weddings, art shows, and studio sessions right here in Laurel and surrounding communities for 27 years.

David was also a devout Christian serving as minister at Pleasant Grove Church of Christ for over 30 years. His ability to comfort and spread love through the gospel of Jesus Christ was felt by all who knew him.

He was preceded in death by his father Chesley Len Lawson and mother Mary Louise Lawson. He is survived by his wife, Helen Lawson, brother Donny Lawson (his wife Dottie Lawson), sister Elaine Barham (husband Sam Barham), daughter Amy Lawson Kopp (her husband Kirk Kopp), son Bobby Lawson (his wife Katie Lawson), as well as his grandchildren Alexis Kopp Kaftajian (her husband Raffi Kaftajian), Gracen Kopp, and John Foster

Lawson.

David was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, and man of God that will be greatly missed by his family and friends. As per David's request, no funeral or memorial service will be held.

“ David will be missed. The many times that we spent working in Pa Paw Landrums garden and the many stories that developed from those occasions, from family gatherings, and most of all being a brother in Christ. His lessons were always meaningful and had a great point even though he said he was not a preacher but one who spoke. I will miss you, brother-in-law.
