“ David was very dear to me and all my family. Back in the day at Mississippi State, he was my unofficial "Big Brother" and I could always count on him if I needed anything. Later, he was added to the Welborn Family and attended almost every holiday. Easter was our favorite! His name is mentioned often at our family gatherings, this past Christmas included. He was one-of-a-kind and I sure did love him.

“ Danny,
David was so special to me and I have wonderful memories of the two of us growing up together. I always considered him to be like a younger brother to me. The last time I saw David, he made a surprise visit to see me when I still lived in Laurel. Thinking of you and your family. Always remember how much David was loved by so many people. He was a true and dear friend.
