

Deborah Martin Kraemer

December 21, 1954 - September 19, 2017

Deborah Martin Kraemer passed into heaven Tuesday evening, September 19, 2017, with her family around her. She was not able to recover from a recent accident. Debbie lived a very special life. She was born to Dr. and Mrs. William Martin in Greenville, Ms. on December 21, 1954. She graduated from Greenville High School with the class of 1971. Debbie was artistic and very generous, many times seen playing the piano for those lonely or ill. The Lord also gave her a beautiful smile and kind words to share freely with anyone in need. Debbie was an excellent floral designer and private sitter for the elderly.

Her life continues on by the influence she had on others by the way she lived life. There were many challenges for her to persevere and stay the course. Her family grew in the midst of these challenges. Her younger brother, Scott Martin (Laurel, MS) and her younger sister, Paula Tubertini (Greenville, MS) both give her credit for the inspiration they received from her life. Debbie also has a son, "Little Michael," who lives in San Francisco, with his wife and two children.

Her mother, Wanda Bailey Jones and her husband Joseph were waiting for her in heaven. In addition to her brother, sister, and special son's family Debbie is survived by her beloved father, William Mack Martin and his wife Clarice. Numerous nephews and nieces will also miss her presence.

The honoring of her passing from this life to one in the presence of Christ will take place as a graveside service at the family's farm known as "Canaan", Sunday September 24, 2017, at 3pm. The service arrangements were entrusted to Memory Chapel of Laurel, MS / memorychapel@comcast.net.

Final word for Debbie's life that she lived is found in His word:

2 Corinthians 1:9 -11 "Yes, we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves but in God who raises the dead, who delivered us from so great a death, and does deliver us; in whom we trust that He will still deliver us, you also helping together in prayer for us, that thanks may be given by many persons on our behalf for gift granted to us through many."
