“ Wallace and family, Words cannot begin to explain the hole that's in my heart after hearing the news about my BFF!!! All the good and bad times we went through together when we were growing up on Legare Ave!! We were there for each other and shared our deepest secrets as Best Friends do! We went on excursions to New Orleans that no child our age would do now! She went with me on family vacations, she was the first to know that I was having a baby, and I was her bridesmaid in that beautiful "marriage made in heaven" Rest In Peace my Angel and know that I am thankful that I have you watching over me!!! Your Friend Forever, Lorraine

We go way back and had good memories working together at SCRMC. We talked many times in the past and always talked about her Christianity . She loved you all dearly . I know you will miss her but we can all be rest assured she is happy with Jesus now . I really did love her!! Sincerely , Judy Wells
