

Debra Faye Blackledge

June 29, 1955 - November 15, 2024

Debra Faye Blackledge, 69 years old of Laurel, MS passed away November 15, 2024 at UMC of Jackson, MS.

Debra was born to Oliver Ander and Barbara Ruth Blackledge of Laurel, MS on June 29, 1955. Debra, or Debbie, as most everyone called her, worked as a CNA for Jones County Rest Home, and then moved to Home Health where she finally retired due to health issues. Debbie loved working in the yard, raising her variety of chickens, and keeping bird feeders for her beloved cardinals who visited all year.

Debra was preceded in death by her parents, Oliver and Barbara Blackledge; baby boy Walters; first husband, James Walters; sister and brother-in-law, Judy and Bill Wood; mother-in-law, Georgia Shedd; father-in-law, VD Shedd; Aunt Lena Mae Blackledge; and step-son, Wade Blackledge.

Debra is survived by her daughters, Sandy Walters and Mary Walters; husband, Jeffie Blackledge; Terrie Case (Shelby), Tommy Blackledge (Vickie), Becky Walls (Gary); sister-in-law, Eva Cheatham (Wayne Sr.); nieces and nephews, Jennifer Hodge (Rickey), Tommy Wood, Wayne Cheatham (Kat), Kimberly Eddy (Jacob), and William Cheatham (Kelsi); and by a host of great and great-great nieces and nephews whom she loved and spoiled very much.

A visitation will be held at Memory Chapel Funeral Home on Friday, November 22nd, from 5 PM to 7 PM. A graveside service will follow on Saturday, November 23rd, at Blackledge Cemetery at 2 PM. Bro. Jimmy Holder will officiate.
