

Donald Ray Buxton

February 25, 1944 - October 9, 2025

Donald “Don” Ray Buxton, age 81, of Beaufort, South Carolina, passed away peacefully at home on October 9, 2025.

Born on February 25, 1944, in Waynesboro, Mississippi, Don was the son of the late Lois and Mallie Buxton. He was preceded in death by his sister, Faye Gunter.

He is survived by his devoted wife of 58 years, Dorothy Buxton; his children, Rebekah Rogers and Jonathan Buxton; his grandchildren, Brandon Burton, Ethan Buxton, Jacob Rogers, and Gabriel Rogers; and his siblings, Diane Grantham, Ronnie Buxton and Tammy Dawson.

Don proudly served in the National Guard, and worked for many years as a skilled aircraft mechanic. A devout Christian, Don was active in his church community, and was known for his faith, kindness, and steady spirit. He found joy in camping, and taking road trips with his loved ones, creating countless memories along the way.

A celebration of life will take place on October 26, 2025 at 12 PM EST at the Beaufort Church of God in Beaufort, South Carolina, where family and friends will gather to honor Don’s memory. A graveside service will be held at 2 pm Tuesday, October 14, 2025, at Hebron Cemetery in Soso, Mississippi.
