Honorary pallbearers are Randy Blakeney, Judge Charles Pickering, Billy Sumrall, William Wells, Ron Fredin, Terry Moore, Roy Ward, Risher Caves, and Dr. Eric Lindstrom. Reverend Ben B. James, Jr., and Reverend Randy Turner will officiate.

Don was born and spent his early years in Minneapolis, Minnesota, where he was a member of Park Avenue Covenant Church. He attended Minnehaha Academy, where he lettered in football and became editor of the high school newspaper. He attended the University of Minnesota and entered into the field of Radio Broadcasting, which included a position as staff announcer with KTIS-FM, Northwestern College in Minneapolis, during the tenure of Rev. Billy Graham as college president. He continued his broadcast career with WCCO-CBS and WMMR radio in Minneapolis.

A United States Air Force veteran, Don served with the Fifth Air Force in Korea and also the Eighth Air Force Strategic Air Command at Carswell Air Force Base in Texas. After the Korean conflict, he acquired his commercial pilot's certificate. He was employed with Northwest Airlines for a number of years and in 1961 moved to Freeport, Grand Bahama Island, as a pilot for a Florida land company. The years that followed included positions in the advertising field, where he held directorships with the Fort Walton Beach, Florida, newspaper, with Sears for 13 years, as well as other newspapers in the South. He also served as a pilot for the Civil Air Patrol in Laurel, flying search and rescue missions.

Don was a member of First Baptist Church in Laurel, serving in the Sanctuary Choir and also as a director in the television ministry.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Mr. & Mrs. Edwin E. Swanberg of Minneapolis, Minnesota, and his sister, Mrs. Esther Peterson, also of Minneapolis.

He is survived by his wife, Judith Skelton Swanberg of Laurel; daughter Page Swanberg of Seattle, Washington; son Erick Swanberg, wife Teresa, and grandson Dane of Enterprise, Alabama; two favorite nephews, Bruce Peterson, Brian Peterson and wife Sue; and favorite niece, Mrs. Lynette Palmgren and husband Bob from St. Paul, Minnesota. He also leaves step-daughters, Ann Adele Blackledge and grandson Abel Nettles of Pass Christian, Mississippi; and Laura Leigh James and husband Rev. Ben B. James of Laurel, Mississippi.

“ Judith, Brian and I are so very sorry to hear this sad news. Don was a wonderful person and you were so perfect together. We still love all the great videos Don created for so many May Day’s. Sending you love and prayers

“ Charles and I have enjoyed being neighbors of Don and Judith. Years ago when our son was in Judith’s third grade class Mr. Swanberg (Don) entertained the class by playing his accordion. Later during our Children’s St John’s years he expertly videoed for the school it’s May Day programs for several years. I enjoyed conversations with Don. I especially enjoyed him telling of the time when he was a boy that he saw Lawrence Welk play in person (before there was a Lawrence Welk Show, when Lawrence Welk was young) and Don decided that he wanted to learn to play the accordion, and he did. He will be missed. Deepest sympathy and love to Judith and family. Susan Cannon
