

Doris Anne Nance Ishee

November 22, 1938 - September 18, 2015

Doris Anne Nance Ishee born November 22, 1938, died September 18, 2015. Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Monday, September 21, 2015, at Memory Chapel with burial to follow at Liberty Cemetery in Jasper County. Rev. Buddy Jennings and Rev. Chris Harrison will officiate. Visitation will be at Memory Chapel Sunday, from 5 until 8 p.m.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 59 years, Edgar Jean Ishee; her parents, Lonnie G. and Lillie Mae Nance; and two sisters, Susan Nance Phillips and Kay Nance Talent.

She is survived by her daughter, Nelda Jean Ishee and husband, Richard; her son, Steven Dale Ishee and wife, Pattie; four grandchildren, Steven Joshua Ishee, Marie Ishee Holifield, Andrea Ishee Knight, and Jody Tyler Ishee and wife, Niki; and six great-grandchildren, Sarah Katelyn Ishee, Nathan Conner Ishee, Kade Lee, Abigail Welch, Lily Pearl Ishee, and Harper Allyn Ishee; two loving sisters, Betty Nance Lamar and husband, Ray, and Bobby Nance Frizzell; precious brother and sister-in-law, Harold Ishee and wife, Florence Holifield Ishee; three dear nieces, Martha Aaron, Mary Caves, and Myra Gray, along with their children and grandchildren; and a host of friends.

She was a retired hair dresser and columnist for the Jasper County News, where she submitted her weekly column, the Stringer News. She was a great cook and was famous for her homemade divinity and cornbread. Although her health failed her in recent years, she was a strong supporter of Stringer Attendance Center and loved her church, Stringer Baptist Church. She was an avid quilter and took great pride in all of her needlework. She was always smiling and never met a stranger.
