“ What a beautiful woman! She was a dear & special friend with my dad and his wife, Kemp and Katherine Winchester. She loved them, and we all loved her. I fondly remember get togethers with "everyone" in Moss or at her home in Laurel. She will be deeply missed, but I know that she is in heaven now and is doing what she did best here... serving others with a smile and a hug. I loved her, and my prayers are with her friends and family now.

“ Doris and Dennis became our friends when we moved into the Cederwood Subdivision. I visited with her the other day and things were better. She was excited Glenn was building in the neighborhood! RIP my friend.

“ Daris was our special friend. She was the most selfless person we ever knew. She was always praying, caring, and giving to others. It was a blessing to have her as our friend. She loved The Lord so much, I know she was glad to see Him. We will miss her terribly. Our love and condolences to her family.
