Dorothy Ann Nowicki

Dorothy Ann Nowicki, 88, of Laurel, formerly of Bellmore, New York, and Springhill, Florida, passed away peacefully after a short illness at Comfort Care on August 5, 2013. Dorothy worked as a homemaker, as a sales assistant for A&S Department Stores, as a secretary for a lawyer, and as a realtor. She was married to Henry G. Nowicki for 52 years before his passing in 1995. They had two children, the late Barbara Ann Nowicki of New York and Steven Douglas Nowicki of Laurel. She loved her family, the ocean, a good meal, a good joke, fine furnishings, and beautiful clothes and jewelry. She was a Christian. She was married to Aram Magarian until his death in 2005. She lived at Comfort Care in assisted living these past two years; and, during her last year, her daughter-in-law Catherine's mother, Ann Capprello, also lived with her at Comfort Care. The two of them shared a loving relationship.

Survivors include her son, Steven Nowicki (Catherine), and grandchildren, Tristan and Samantha Nowicki, all of Laurel. She is also survived by a host of grandsons, nieces, nephews, and great grandsons who carry her in spirit.

Dorothy will be cremated. Visitation with the family will be Monday, August 19, 2013, at 5:15 p.m. in the Ladies' Parlor at First Trinity Presbyterian Church, with a service of celebration for Dorothy's life at 6:00 p.m. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Covenant House, a charity for homeless children.

Thanks to the staff at South Central Regional Medical Center and Comfort

Care for all their caring, love and support.
