

Eleanor Windham Smith

August 1, 1926 - May 26, 2015

Eleanor Windham Smith, 88, of Laurel, MS passed away May 26, 2015, at South Central Regional Medical Center in Laurel, surrounded by her loving family. She was the daughter of the late James Bond and Avis (Wilson) Windham. Eleanor was preceded in death by her brother, James Bond "Buck" Windham, Jr., and two sisters, Josephine Windham and Bonnie Carter. Visitation will be held at Memory Chapel Funeral Home on Friday, May 29, at 9:00 a.m., with service to follow at 10:00 a.m. Pastor David L. Hagan will preside. Burial will be held at Ellisville Cemetery.

She will be remembered by a sister, Ann Windham Bass of Laurel, MS, two daughters, Patti and husband, Mike Smith of Orlando, FL and Sandy and husband Mackey McKinzie of Laurel; three grandsons, Brian Smith of Orlando, FL, Will McKinzie of Cullman, AL, Brandon McKinzie, of Laurel, MS, and one granddaughter, Tristen Smith Bowen, of Orlando, FL. Eleanor had five great grandchildren and five nephews.

Eleanor grew up in Laurel and was formerly married to N. C. Smith, a CPA in Laurel. Her past years were spent at Comfort Care Nursing Home in Laurel, where she had many friends and enjoyed the activities they provided. Quilting, bible study, and arts and crafts kept her involved and busy. We would like to thank all of those that surrounded her with care, love, and support throughout her life and her last days.

In lieu of flowers, please make a donation to your charity of choice.

Memory Chapel is in charge of the arrangements. To view and sign the family “ Grandmother always loved to laugh. Was very loving and always loved seeing us when we could come up. We love her with all our heart and her picture has been and will always be up in my house for people to see. I am so happy Lennox got to meet his great grandmother that really means a lot to us. My thought and prayers go out to the McKinzie's, My parents and everyone mourning this loss. We love you all.
