

Elizabeth Cloar Burle

June 11, 1968 - January 3, 2025

Elizabeth Cloar Burle (Libba) of Memphis, Tennessee passed away on January 3, 2025 in Memphis, Tennessee of undetermined causes. She was born on June 11, 1968 to Bette Stephens Green and Frank Thomas Cloar in Laurel, Mississippi. She was educated at The Lausanne Collegiate School, Central High School, and Rhodes College, all located in Memphis. She graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in the Fine Arts. At Rhodes, she was a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority, and hosted her own art show in the Clough Gallery for her senior project.

Above all else, Libba was an art teacher, and spent the majority of her life educating others. She taught art at the Lausanne Summer Program in Memphis; French and art at the University of Jackson Middle School in Jackson, Tennessee; art at the Walter Anderson Museum of Art Summer Program in Ocean Springs, Mississippi; pottery at the Indianola Community College in Indianola, Mississippi; curated an Art Solo Exhibition by Carroll Cloar at the Weatherby House; and was an art teacher at the Washington School in Greenville, Mississippi. She was also an active member in the Mississippi Art Education Association.

Libba enjoyed cooking, gardening, and drawing sketches of her children. She was known to paint pet portraits, and volunteered her time at the Greenville Animal Shelter. She is preceded in death by her father, Frank Thomas Cloar.

She is survived by her two sons, William Louis Burle, and John Ethan Burle; her mother, Bette Green; step-father, William Green; brother, Frank Thomas Cloar, Jr. (Julie); her niece, Grace Kathryn Cloar; and her nephews, Frank Joseph Cloar, Nicholas Thomas Cloar, and Jack Livingston Cloar.

Services will be handled by Memory Chapel Funeral Home with visitation at the funeral home beginning at 1 pm. A graveside service for Libba will be held at Lake Park Cemetery at 2 pm on Wednesday, January 8. Bro. Parry Bridges will officiate.

“ Libba was a fun , hilarious free spirit . I met her in high school where we lived across the street from each other near Rhodes College. I always loved her easy going sweet disposition and all of the funny conversations we had. Wish we would have kept in touch throughout the years . May you rest in peace in Heaven Libba! Pray for all of us ❤️ See you when my time comes 🙏🥹
