

Elizabeth Melita Jones Fuller

July 11, 1918 - October 5, 2011

Melita Jones Fuller, 93, of Laurel, died Wednesday, October 5, 2011, at Nan's Personal Care Home, Ellisville.

Graveside services will be held at 11:00 a.m., Saturday, October 8, at Lake Park Cemetery in Laurel. An elementary school teacher and homemaker, Melita was a member of First-Trinity Presbyterian Church in Laurel, where she was active in the women of the church. She was a native of Meridian, but she resided in Laurel for most of her life and attended Laurel City Schools and Jones County Junior College. She graduated from Mississippi University for Women (MSCW), where she was affiliated with Black List Social Club. She was an artist, an avid bridge player and a gardener. She fully loved life and will be remembered for her kind heart, sweet spirit and soft nature.

She was preceded in death by her father, J. Herbert Jones; mother, Nellie L. O'Quinn; stepfather, Cullen L. O'Quinn; brother, Franklin H. Jones; husband, Captain Robert W. Turner; husband, Thomas C. Fuller; son, Thomas C. Fuller, Jr.; and great-grandson, Jeffrey H. St. Romain, Jr.

She is survived by her son, Robert W. Turner, Jr., and wife, Patricia, of Hattiesburg; son, Richard H. Turner of Long Beach; daughter, Elizabeth Fuller Sumrall and husband, Scott of Laurel; four grandchildren, Melita Turner St. Romain and husband, Jeffrey, of Covington, Louisiana, Charles F. Stewart III of Ridgeland, Thomas W. Fuller of Jackson, and Melissa Fuller Camardelle and husband, Kyle, of Copperas Cove, Texas; sister-in-law, Ethel Fuller Andrews of Bradbury, California; nephew and nieces, William Andrews, Margaret Davis, and Nancy Davidson, all of California; three great-grandchildren, Turner, Juliette, and Camden St. Romain, all of Covington, Louisiana; cousins, Patricia Sanders, and Leah Shannon of Meridian, and Gilbert Pyle of Victoria, Texas; and special friend and caregiver, Sandra Blackledge of Ellisville.

Memorials may be made to First-Trinity Presbyterian Church in Laurel or a favorite charity.

Visitation will be held from 9:30 a.m. until 10:45 a.m. at Memory Chapel Funeral Home in Laurel, which is in charge of arrangements.
