“ Ms Rainer, as I knew her, was a wonderful influence in my life. Some of my first memories were of her making delicious sloppy joes and serving them to her sons and me in her home across from Mason School. She always had a seat at her table for anyone, which always included some home made and excellent Southern cooking. She devoted many an hour to the children in her church. She's now enjoying the reward due her. Bless you Ms. Emmie.
