“ I remember Chad and I stopped to see you one evening. And you kept going on about some little peacock statue you just bought, and how beautiful it was. But you couldn't find it anywhere. Lol,..you had us searching for that peacock all night! We went through that whole house room by room looking for that thing.
We never did find it that night.
One of the last times I saw you, I asked to borrow a go cup for my drink. You reluctantly let me after you showed me your completely organized cabinet of pretty go cups, all with matching lids, and straws. And made me promise to bring it back,.... I still have that cup. It wasn't until you were gone that I realized,
It has a peacock on it too.
I suddenly see them everywhere now.
I miss you
